

Daily Announcements: December 13, 2017

Overdue On-line Forms: Why can't you go with your class on a walking field trip? Why isn't your picture in the school yearbook? It might be because your online permission forms have not been completed. A list of students whose online forms are not done has been posted on the office window. If your name is on the list, drop by the office. Let's get these done!

Library Fine Freedom for Food: Do you have an overdue library book? Do you owe a fine? Bring a can of food for the library hamper with your overdue book and your fine will be cancelled.

Lost and Found: Please check the lost and found table for any belongings you are missing. Unclaimed items will be donated to charity on Friday, December 15.

Rafiki Bracelets: We will be selling bracelets every Friday in December in front of the office for $10 each.

Christmas Hampers: During December in first block classes, please donate your non-perishable items, canned food, toothbrushes and soap to the Christmas hamper box. The class with the most items will win a pizza lunch! All proceeds go to the less fortunate.

Gingerbread Houses: Today-Wednesday, December 13, we will be gathering in the Photo Room (B100) at noon to decorate our masterpieces. Please be prompt, as we have only 45 minutes in which to complete the houses. All materials will be provided. Look for the completed masterpieces in the display case under the main stairs, and buy a ticket to WIN your favourite!

24-Hour Fast Pledges: Please drop off your outstanding pledges at the main office, or give them to Ms. Matsubuchi any time this week!

Hot Chocolate: All week, the SLC will be selling steaming cups of hot chocolate outside the office for just $1 a cup. If you bring your own cup, you can pay 75 cents. Help support the Lookout Shelter Society.

Santa's Breakfast: Friday, December 22 before school starts (7:30am) is the Santa's Breakfast. Tickets will be sold in block 2 by senior PE students or at lunch or break in the multi-purpose areas. Tickets cost $4.

Tiramisu for Sale: The Mosaic Club will be selling Tiramisu for $2 and seaweed for $1 to raise money for Korean people who were effected by the earthquake.

Grads: Your yearbook write-up is due January 9. This means you have the break to come up with something meaningful. See Ms. Smyth or the office for the write-up guidelines.

Grad Portfolios: If you have completed your portfolio, you still must see Ms. Matsubuchi in B103 for your evaluation and to collect your binder—Period 1 or by appointment.

Career, Post Secondary and Volunteer Opportunities:

Scholarship Opportunities: Do you plan on attending the University of Manitoba? There is a $16,000 scholarship available. Do you work for Burger King? There is a scholarship available. The Scholarship Opportunities list has been updated in the portal and on the Scholarship Information bulletin board in the library—with deadline dates in through to February.

Talk at the Top: This is a youth-led and driven summit on mental health leadership. This year's event takes place in The Observatory on Grouse Mountain on Friday, January 26. This is the semester turnaround day, so you do not have classes. If you are interested, google "Talk at the Top 2018."

Artists for Kids: High school students are offered free art assistant training on January 17, 24 and 31, 2018. There will be three 1-1/2 hour workshops that will develop the skills to qualify participants as AFK art assistants and day camp assistant or counsellors. See Ms. Abad in B204 for more details.

Bricks4Kidz North Vancouver: Students are needed as party, event and camp junior instructors that will support their lead teaches and Kids Night Out programs. Their classes teach the fundamentals of STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics) education. If you love working with children, grew up loving LEGO, have a passion for education, are a punctual team member and would like to earn $11.50-$14.00/hour, apply now. Visit the Bricks4Kidz website or see Ms. Abad.

Sports:

Junior Girls Basketball Practice: Practice is tomorrow—Thursday, December 14 from 4:30-6:00pm.
