

Tuesday, June 18, 2024 Announcements

- June 17-21 is Argyle's Indigenous Peoples' Week. Join us for a smudge and drumming circle during flex each morning.
- There will be an Indigenous Games tournament TODAY at lunch in the gym. Prizes will be awarded for the top competitors in each game. Members of the wrestling team would like to challenge you to try to beat them.
- Bannock will be available outside the library all day Thursday! Come celebrate Indigenous Peoples' Week with some Bannock.
- All Indigenous students are invited to a pizza lunch on Wednesday in room 150.
- Tomorrow is Juneteenth. Juneteenth is a day commemorating the end of slavery in the United States. While it is an official holiday south of the border, Juneteenth is also marked unofficially in Canada – with communities across the Country celebrating Black culture.
- Indigenous Peoples Day is a time to recognize and celebrate the history, heritage, and diversity of First Nations, Inuit and Metis across Turtle Island. It is a day to raise awareness of Canada's colonial history, and to acknowledge the resilience of Indigenous Peoples in the face of ongoing struggles. It serves as a reminder of the importance of preserving the beautiful land we call home, and as a promise to honor everything it has provided us.
- Indigenous Peoples Day is on June 21st, in recognition of Indigenous celebratory connections to the summer solstice. We hope you spend this week recognizing, and honoring the land, and the Indigenous Peoples to whom it truly belongs.
- Attention Grade 11 and 12's who may be interested in a summer job in Marketing: Please see your grade counsellor or the Work Experience Facilitator for Information about job opportunities and/or scholarships.
- A reminder to students to clean out your locker and return your lock to the main office by Friday of this week. If you have forgotten your locker number or combination please check with the office.
- Student council's Summerfest is happening this Friday! Come to the back of the school for food, fun and entertainment to celebrate the last day of school. There will be pre-sale tickets for food selling in the cafeteria from Tuesday – Thursday. We will have Hot dogs for $1.00, or a combo for $2.00!
- All boys interested in playing soccer for Argyle in September can sign up for player evaluations using the QR Codes posted around the school. Soccer evaluations will begin as soon as we return to school in September, it is important students interested in playing on either the JR Boys or SR Boys soccer teams in the fall sign up now to receive evaluation details.

- Please see the TVs and flyers posted around the school for Friday's Schedule. Cafeteria is closing at 11:40 for the Summer.
