This week, we have two incredible athletes to highlight from the grade 8 girls' rugby team: Breanna Quinivista and Cedar Rogers. Cedar's coaches say her incredible serves and unwavering commitment have made her a key player this season. Her infectious energy and uplifting support have been vital to the team's success. Meanwhile, Breanna's powerful jump serves and exceptional coachability have set her apart this season. Her ability to step up in crucial moments proved her to be a dependable and impactful team player. Together, these two and the rest of the team placed 2nd in their finals
